NOTES

The Deputy Provincial Grand Master:

When the Deputy Provincial Grand Master is visiting a Lodge, he does so in his own right and NOT as a 'Representative of the Right Worshipful Provincial Grand Master'.

Please advise the Brethren proposing toasts at supper.

The Provincial Grand Wardens:

When a Provincial Grand Warden attends a Lodge, as a member or visitor, (other than at Installation or as the Representative) he is to be seated to the right of the Worshipful Master and immediately after Representative and Grand Officers and the appropriate greetings are to be given.

Placement at table for supper should follow the same procedure unless he expresses a wish to be seated next to his host but, no matter where he is placed at table, the Worshipful Master should 'take wine' with him after the Grand Officers but before Provincial Grand Officers.
